Note: Your proposed advisor should be consulted regarding items 8 and 9.

8. Up to 12 credits from 600-level and above courses earned prior to admission may be applied to the M.S. degree. Only 6 of these credits may count toward both the baccalaureate and the master's degree (i.e., any 600-level credits applied beyond that would have been taken on an overload basis). Please indicate below which 600-level courses (if any) that you expect you can apply to the MS. Be advised that grades below a B- cannot be applied toward a graduate degree.

9. Please proposed a likely schedule of courses for the 2 semesters of your graduate curriculum.

10. Briefly describe your career goals and/or professional interests.
